ADMINISTRATION HAS MAPPED PLAN RETURN NORMALCY

UNDERSTOOD PRESIDENT SOLICITED AID OF SENATORS AT DINNER GIVEN THEM

PLANS INVOLVE SETTLEMENT OF ALL MATTERS LEFT BY THE CONDUCT OF THE WAR

(By United Press)

Washington, July 27—The Harding administration has mapped its course for a return to normalcy.

Developments today made clear for the first time essential points in this course which Harding hopes to carry through with the aid of congress. It is understood he sought their aid at a dinner given the senators at the White House last night. The course involves clearing up of the debris and left-overs of the war. This means to put on a permanent basis the allied debt to this country; the settlement of the government account with the railroads; the funding of $7,500,000,000 government obligations due in 1923 and revision of the revenue law to wipe out war taxation.

Settlement of these matters will, in the opinion of President Harding, give the country a feeling of security and permanency which will serve as a starting place for industrial and commercial revival.

The foreign debt situation is in the hands of Secretary Mellon and the senate. Harding has indicated to the senate leaders he desires early action.

Plans for settlement of the railroad account with the government was explained in the president's message yesterday.

Revision of the tax law is proceeding in the house.

The next step will be to make clear to congress and the country what the administration proposes to do about the $7,500,000,000 worth of government obligations.

Plans for taking care of these obligations through issuance of war time treasury notes and exchange them for bonds of foreign nations which this government hopes to receive in the debt settlement have been discussed.

The fate of the soldier bonus, which President Harding asked the senate to shelve, awaits the completion of the result of an administration program. It was understood.

Definite Program Outlined

A definite program for congress was being put in shape today by leaders following a dinner conference at the White House last night at which the details were settled.

It was decided that the railroad relief legislation asked yesterday by President Harding can wait, there being no immediate need of it in spite of the fact that Harding thought the need urgent enough to send a special message urging prompt action. The program agreed on by Harding and senate leaders, it was learned, is this:

The senate to pass the administration substitute for the Norris bill to give credit to farmers enabling them to hold their surplus until the market is open.

The senate to pass the anti-medical beer bill and the Cooper-Tincher bill to prevent future trading in grain.

The house to pass the tax bill. The tax bill to be given precedence in the senate over the tariff bill.

Both houses to recess or adjourn as soon as the above program has been put through leaving the senate finance committee to work on the tax bill.

The senate to return to work as soon as the tax bill is ready.

TWO SMALL BOYS LOST IN WOODS OF ITASCA STATE PARK

WANDER ALL NIGHT LONG AND RETURN TO CAMP AFTER BEING GIVEN UP AS LOST

(By United Press)

Douglas Lodge, Itasca State Park, July 27—After wandering nearly 24 hours in the woods two small sons of Dr. L. J. Cooke, University of Minnesota professor, found a farm house early today and were brought here. A farmer brought them not ten minutes after a searching party of fifty had given up the search and came here for breakfast.

Dr. L. J. Cooke, father of the boys, was almost overcome when the boys appeared. They were almost exhausted and nearly famished when they struggled up to the farm house of a settler named Pritchard, six miles from Douglas Lodge, about eight o'clock this morning. They had only three sandwiches when they left the camp at North Arm yesterday morning to come to the lodge.

They were playing along the way said Albert, 11, and did not notice they were off the path for some time. Hughie, 10, was too tired to argue with Albert about which was the most scared.

All during the night they wandered and cried. They kept calling out one after the other, they said, hoping daddy would hear them.

After the sun came up they kept trudging along yelling, but they were unheard. Finally they saw a farmhouse and made their way to it as fast as they could go. The farmer brought them here in a wagon.

The searching party had scoured the woods all night and found no trace of the boys. Giving up the search long enough to eat breakfast at the lodge, plans were being discussed for combing the entire region when the boys came in. They were given hot baths and taken to the camp at North Arm. After breakfast they went to sleep.

LURE OF ROCKIES CAUSES DEATH OF PURDUE PRESIDENT

DR. STONE FALLS TO DEATH IN ROCK CREVICE—WIFE SERIOUSLY INJURED

(By United Press)

Banff, Alberta, July 27—The lure of the Canadian Rockies today claimed the life of Dr. W. E. Stone, president of Purdue University, and one of the leading educators of the United States. The body of the doctor was found jammed between two sharp jetties of rock at the base of Mount Eanon. He had fallen into the crevice while attempting to rescue his wife.

Mrs. Stone was found seriously injured at the foot of the crevice. She was rushed to an emergency hospital at Camp Assiniboine and doctors and nurses from here ministered to her. Physicians say she may recover. She would not talk of her heroic experience during which she spent hours lying in the crevice a few feet from the body of her husband. She did not know of his death until informed by her rescuers. The body of Mr. Stone was found Sunday. It took nearly an entire day to remove it from the crevice and guides from the camp did not return here with the news until late last night.

In a temporary camp on an almost inaccessible pony trail 35 miles from Banff, Mrs. Stone today struggled to regain her reason after an experience that would long ago have killed a less hardy character.

This was the word sent today by Dr. R. C. Bell, Winnipeg physician and member of the Alpine Club of Canada, who reached here two hours after Mrs. Stone was found in a deep crevice near the dead body of her husband.

GOVERNOR SMALL NOTIFIES SHERIFF HE WILL SURRENDER

AFTER DECLARING HE WOULD CALL OUT TROOPS TO PREVENT HIS ARREST

SHERIFF TELLS GOVERNOR TO RETURN AT HIS CONVENIENCE AND GIVE BOND

(By United Press)

Chicago, July 27—Governor Len Small, indicted first executive of Illinois, bowed meekly before the law today.

The governor, who repeatedly declared he would call out state troops before he would submit to arrest on a warrant charging embezzlement of state funds, notified Sheriff H. Mester, of Sangamon county, he was ready for surrender.

Immediately after "Iron Judge" Smith of the circuit court declared "Illinois has no king," and held the governor amenable to arrest, Smith fled to Chicago to the arms of his political sponsors.

After a conference with political leaders and Albert Fink, at present his chief attorney, a message was sent by Fink that Mester advise the sheriff the governor would submit to arrest today in Chicago at the attorney's office.

Mester replied he would not go to Chicago to serve the warrant, but would permit the governor to appear at his convenience in Sangamon, and give bond.

The complete backdown of the governor from his stand to resist arrest with his entire strength came as a result of change in legal advisors.

Harding Hears Arguments For Debs' Release

(By United Press)

Washington, July 27—President Harding today had a succession of appointments with organizations and persons who have urged him to release Eugene V. Debs and other political prisoners.

Announcement of the appointments followed reports that Debs, and possibly others convicted of violation of war time laws, would be released soon. Officials refused to comment on the report, but it was learned that the Debs case has been before them during the last few days.

Representatives of the political amnesty league said President Harding expressed sympathy with their mission during a conference today. Harding pointed out that consideration on the subject should not be given until after "certain events." This statement officials construed for the visitors as meaning that political prisoners would not be freed until after the peace proclamation is promulgated.

Mrs. Stone was found seriously injured at the foot of the crevice. She was rushed to an emergency hospital at Camp Assiniboine and doctors and nurses from here ministered to her. Physicians say she may recover. She would not talk of her heroic experience during which she spent hours lying in the crevice a few feet from the body of her husband. She did not know of his death until informed by her rescuers. The body of Mr. Stone was found Sunday. It took nearly an entire day to remove it from the crevice and guides from the camp did not return here with the news until late last night.

In a temporary camp on an almost inaccessible pony trail 35 miles from Banff, Mrs. Stone today struggled to regain her reason after an experience that would long ago have killed a less hardy character.

This was the word sent today by Dr. R. C. Bell, Winnipeg physician and member of the Alpine Club of Canada, who reached here two hours after Mrs. Stone was found in a deep crevice near the dead body of her husband.

NOTIFIES SHERIFF
HE WILL SURRENDER*AFTER DECLARING HE WOULD CALL OUT TROOPS TO PRE-VENT HIS ARREST*SHERIFF TELLS GOVERNOR TO RETURN AT HIS CONVENIENCE AND GIVE BOND

(By United Press)

Chicago, July 27—Governor Len Small, indicted first executive of Illinois, bowed meekly before the law today.

The governor, who repeatedly declared he would call out state troops before he would submit to arrest on a warrant charging embezzlement of state funds, notified Sheriff H. Mester, of Sangamon county, he was ready for surrender.

Immediately after "Iron Judge" Smith of the circuit court declared "Illinois has no king," and held the governor amenable to arrest, Smith fled to Chicago to the arms of his political sponsors.

After a conference with political leaders and Albert Fink, at present his chief attorney, a message was sent by Fink that Mester advise the sheriff the governor would submit to arrest today in Chicago at the attorney's office.

Mester replied he would not go to Chicago to serve the warrant, but would permit the governor to appear at his convenience in Sangamon, and give bond.

The complete breakdown of the governor from his stand to resist arrest with his entire strength came as a result of change in legal advisors.

Harding Hears Arguments For Debs' Release

(By United Press)

Washington, July 27—President Harding today had a succession of appointments with organizations and persons who have urged him to release Eugene V. Debs and other political prisoners.

Announcement of the appointments followed reports that Debs, and possibly others convicted of violation of war time laws, would be released soon. Officials refused to comment on the report, but it was learned that the Debs case has been before them during the last few days.

Representatives of the political amnesty league said President Harding expressed sympathy with their mission during a conference today. Harding pointed out that consideration on the subject should not be given until after "certain events." This statement officials construed for the visitors as meaning that political prisoners would not be freed until after the peace proclamation is promulgated.

The Oliver firm, which has extensive holdings on the Mesabi and Vermilion ranges in Minnesota and on the Gogebic range in Michigan, made its first wage reduction May 16, with 20 per cent. CHAMBER COMMERCE MEETING TONIGHT

Committee Reports of All Kinds Indicating the Chamber is Doing Civic Work

PLAN FOR MORE CONVENTIONS

Membership Committee Gaining More Members, Retail Trades Committee Stirring Up Things

The Chamber of Commerce has a regular meeting this evening. There will be reports of all kinds, indicative of the fact that the Chamber is doing things for the civic betterment of Brainerd.

The membership committee has its campaign well in hand and has a group of new applicants.

The retail trades committee met Wednesday afternoon and will report on the scheme of having a month's sale by all stores to gain a lot of trade for Brainerd.

The publicity committee has worked out a plan for a neat folder describing Brainerd points of interest, tourist park, Lum park, hotels, restaurants, garages, battery stations, how to get into town and out again, side trips to various lake resorts, etc. It will be just the kind of a little folder to send to a delegate of a convention or give to a tourist so he can familiarize himself with Brainerd. Publicity has been gained in many ways for Brainerd and the campaign is being kept up.

The finance committee has a report on Chamber finances.

Summer months may not be desirable ones for meetings, but it's in the summer time that conventions are meeting and now is the time the Chamber must work to get conventions for next year.

R. R. Wise has led the Northern Minnesota Development Association meeting for Brainerd. Dr. Roy Williams will present the merits of Brainerd to the chiropractors state convention at St. Cloud and assisted by Secretary O. J. Bouma will make a bid for this convention for 1922.

Any Chamber members attending conventions this year should notify Secretary O. J. Bouma so that Brainerd may put in a bid for next year's convention. They will be supplied with literature and backed with facts and given cooperation.

Preaching Service

Preaching service at S. D. A. church 7th St. South, July 29th at 8 p. m. The public is cordially invited.

TURK LOSING HOLD IN EUROPE

Vast Empire Once Under the Crescent Has Been Slowly Dwindling Since the Year 1699.

Those who were in hopes that Turkey might take herself, "bag and baggage, out of everything" and have seen a setback to their hopes in the Sevres revision, can cheer up a bit by looking at the map, says the Christian Science Monitor. The chart of the Ottoman empire as it has existed since 1686 presents, indeed, a hopeful sight. The empire slowly and surely has been going back to first things. The crumbling began in 1699, when Transylvania, Slovakia and a chunk of Poland and Hungary were lost. The Banat went in 1717, the Bukovina in 1775, the Taurida and the Crimea in 1783, and the Odessa district in 1792. The next century was even more disastrous for Turkey, who lost Bessarabia in 1812, a part of Serbia in 1817, Georgia and Greece in 1829, Algeria in 1830, Bulgaria in 1876, northern Armenia, Rumania and more of Serbia in 1878, Tunisia and some of Greece in 1881, and Egypt in 1882. Nor has the present century been behind its predecessor. Libya was a great loss in 1912, following the annexation by Austria in 1908 of Bosnia and Herzegovina; 1913 proved particularly unfortunate for the Turks in the Balkans, and last year they slipped from their grasp the Hedjaz, Mesopotamia, Syria, Palestine, the strips along the Persian gulf, Smyrna and some of Armenia. It is a tale of consistent disaster.

BUSINESS MAN IS AT ITS HEAD

E. O. Rice is President of the Central Minnesota Camp Meeting Association

THEY WERE HERE LAST YEAR

His Business Career is Given—Mrs. Rice is a Finely Trained Gospel Singer

The Methodist Camp Meeting has a splendid business man at its head, E. O. Rice who as president of the Minnesota Penticostal, or Red Rock, Camp Meeting Association is at the head of the Central Minnesota camp meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Rice were here last year and won the hearts of many of the people.

The following is a summary of his business career:

Cash boy for Marshall Field & Co., Chicago.

Messenger for Baldwin & Barnum, on the Board of Trade, Chicago.

Paymaster for Geo. L. Thompson Mfg. Co., Chicago.

Currency Teller, Admissions Department, Louisiana Purchase Exposition, St. Louis.

Manager of Credit Department, Commercial National bank, Chicago.

Chicago Manager, Holbrook Corey & Co., Commercial Paper Brokers, New York City.

Vice president and Director, Highland Park State bank, Highland Park, Mich., and Bank of Detroit, Detroit, Mich.

Present position, Financial Secretary, Ashbury College, Wilmore, Ky., President Minnesota Penticostal Association.

Many flattering business propositions have since been presented to him, but he prefers to follow closely the leading of his Master and do the tasks assigned him in the whitened harvest field of Earth. His message is plain and simple and has in it an appeal that mightily impresses business men.

Mrs. Rice is a finely trained gospel singer of very rare sweetness. Her song-messages are tender and moving and are charmingly rendered.

Safety-First Doors.

Nearly every one suffers pangs of anxiety when they see a child leaning far out of a railway carriage window or pressing with its full weight against a door. Soon parents will not need to tell their children to "come away at once!" for an automatic locking device has been designed by a member of the Birmingham Dock staff of the Great Central Railway company.

By this new invention the carriage door automatically locks itself, and cannot be opened when the train is in motion, except by a special key, which will be in charge of the guard. This key will unlock the doors even when they have been strained by intent or accident, and when the train slows down the doors automatically unlock themselves.

The new device is worked from the axle of the carriage and can be applied to single carriages.—Exchange.

To furnish this Board with 250 tons of Screened Youngheheny Lump coal, or equal, to be delivered to the various school buildings in the city. Coal to be delivered within thirty days from date contract is awarded.

Ford
THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Let There Be No Discords

If your Ford car is out of tune, there is undoubtedly a very good reason for it. And the best way to find that reason, and have it remedied, is to jump in and drive to our authorized Service station, where one of our mechanics who is thoroughly acquainted with the Ford mechanism and who knows the Ford way to adjust or repair your car, can tune it up in a garage that is properly equipped to give real Ford service. Then, too we never use imitation parts—only the Genuine Ford-made, strong and durable. They wear from thirty to seventy-five per cent longer than the counterfeit parts that are softer and more cheaply made. In fact it is dangerous to human life to use imitation parts, and it is not fair to your Ford car or your pocket book.

We are a part of the gigantic Ford Service Organization whose purpose it is to serve the owners of all Ford cars and trucks; we have more than a passing interest in your car. Prompt service is given on all work—from a minor adjustment to a motor overhaul. Drive in and see the facts for yourself—there's too much money invested in your Ford car to miss connections with the authorized Ford dealers.

AN EPOCHAL EVENT

Leading newspapers of the country assert that President Harding's invitation to Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to hold a conference in Washington to discuss limitation of armaments has completely changed the face of the diplomatic world.

President Harding, in this invitation, with clear insight, went straight to the heart of the thing uppermost today in the thoughts of all peoples, as well as in the council rooms of all governments, namely, a desire for lasting, world-wide peace. The president's action appeals to the common sense of the world because it is practical rather than academic.

The practical way to prevent individuals from shooting each other up is to disarm them. The same is largely true of nations. The president did the simple, effective, workable thing—called for a conference to discuss disarmament. And the civilized world immediately sensed the tremendous importance of this action.

President Harding's invitation and Secretary Hughes' letter, taken together, however, clearly indicate that the United States will not theorize or haggle regarding American rights abroad, that it intends to see that they are respected, but that it would prefer to attain this through amicable agreements with all powers and to that end calls a conference.

That the world has heeded our call is significant. Our invitation to discuss armaments is utterly devoid of selfishness or fear. It therefore carries unusual weight.

LIBERALIZING POSTAL SAVINGS.

The proposal of Postmaster General Hays to liberalize the postal savings system will undoubtedly tend to make the savings bank a more serviceable institution, and therefore deserves encouragement and support. If Mr. Hays succeeds in transforming hoarders into depositors he will by that act transmute suspicions which smack of medievalism into the co-operation on which modern civilization is founded. No man should be so ignorant of financial methods as to refrain from making his savings work for him and for the nation. The stocking bank should be put out of business.

It is only fair that the interest rate should be raised to 3 per cent. Uncle Sam should not "profiteer." It will not induce improper competition with private banks, and it will provide the depositors with a return on his savings to which he is entitled. And it is a wise provision that savings which remain on deposit less than one year will draw interest.

TILE DRAINAGE

Probably few people realize that millions of dollars are being expended yearly by farmers and land owners of Minnesota on drainage tile, which E. V. Willard, state drainage and waters commissioner, declares makes the state's lands more productive and repays the investors many fold. The value of under drainage as an investment, he says, has been firmly established by results which have been accomplished in the past. Minnesota ranks with the foremost states as regards the possibilities for increasing the production of her soil by tile drainage.

COAL INVESTIGATION

Faced with the strong probability of a serious fuel famine in Minnesota next winter, Gov. Preus has ordered an investigation into the coal supply, and practices and prices of coal prevailing in the wholesale and retail trade of the state. This is just what the people want and the governor is to be commended for his prompt action. The requirements of the different localities will be ascertained, and dealers will be urged to prepare for these requirements. Special inquiry will be made with reference to prices. N. J. Holmberg, commissioner of agriculture, will conduct the inquiry.

DAMAGES FOR FOREST FIRES

The state supreme court has announced a decision holding that the United States railroad administration is liable to damages resulting from the forest fire which started near the Great Northern tracks near Cloquet in October, 1918, and caused a loss of several million dollars. The case decided directly involves 278 plaintiffs and indirectly 1,200 residents of Cloquet who were burned out. In the total area of the fire there are about 2,000 claimants to damages and the aggregate amount involved is estimated at upward of $20,000,000.

This decision affirms that of the five district judges who tried the consolidated Cloquet fire case in May, 1920. Responsibility of the Federal Railroad administration is incurred through its operation of the Great Northern railroad at the time.

Representative Knutson of St. Cloud is home from Washington for a two weeks' visit in his district. He expects to return to the capital when the House takes up the tax revision legislation which will be reported at an early date by the ways and means committee.

Farm laborers are said to be scarce and in great demand in Minnesota, especially in the southern part of the state. The farmers are clamoring for help in the harvest fields at from $2.50 to $3.00 per day including room and board, while hundreds of men are walking the streets in the cities looking for work at 35 cents an hour. As the farmers proceed with their harvesting it is feared the situation will be worse.

The revenue from motor vehicle licenses under the Babcock law has passed the $4,500,000 mark, and about 600 applications, the majority of which are for new cars, are being received daily at the present time throughout the state. More than 300,000 motor vehicles have been licensed on the applications numbered.

It is estimated that 25,000 men are needed at once in North Dakota to harvest the wheat and other crops. Farmers in the state are said to be offering $3.00 a day for harvest work.

Perhaps it may cheer the ultimate consumer somewhat to remember that the coal men have to buy shoes—and vice versa.

There are a lot of inconsistent people in this wicked world—and there are also those who are very willing to get back to normalcy by having the wages of others cut.

But Only Then,
Most women hate flattery—when they hear it applied to other women.—

AN EPOCHAL EVENT

Leading newspapers of the country assert that President Harding's invitation to Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan to hold a conference in Washington to discuss limitation of armaments has completely changed the face of the diplomatic world.

President Harding, in this invitation, with clear insight, went straight to the heart of the thing uppermost today in the thoughts of all peoples, as well as in the council rooms of all governments, namely, a desire for lasting, world-wide peace. The president's action appeals to the common sense of the world because it is practical rather than academic.

The practical way to prevent individuals from shooting each other up is to disarm them. The same is largely true of nations. The president did the simple, effective, workable thing—called for a conference to discuss disarmament. And the civilized world immediately sensed the tremendous importance of this action.

President Harding's invitation and Secretary Hughes' letter, taken together, however, clearly indicate that the United States will not theorize or haggle regarding American rights abroad, that it intends to see that they are respected, but that it would prefer to attain this through amicable agreements with all powers and to that end calls a conference.

That the world has heeded our call is significant. Our invitation to discuss armaments is utterly devoid of selfishness or fear. It therefore carries unusual weight.

LIBERALIZING POSTAL SAVINGS.

The proposal of Postmaster General Hays to liberalize the postal savings system will undoubtedly tend to make the savings bank a more serviceable institution, and therefore deserves encouragement and support. If Mr. Hays succeeds in transforming hoarders into depositors he will by that act transmute suspicions which smack of medievalism into the co-operation on which modern civilization is founded. No man should be so ignorant of financial methods as to refrain from making his savings work for him and for the nation. The stocking bank should be put out of business.

It is only fair that the interest rate should be raised to 3 per cent. Uncle Sam should not "proliferate." It will not induce improper competition with private banks, and it will provide the depositors with a return on his savings to which he is entitled. And it is a wise provision that savings which remain on deposit less than one year will draw interest.

TILE DRAINAGE

Probably few people realize that millions of dollars are being expended yearly by farmers and land owners of Minnesota on drainage tile, which E. V. Willard, state drainage and waters commissioner, declares makes the state's lands more productive and repays the investors many fold. The value of under drainage as an investment, he says, has been firmly established by results which have been accomplished in the past. Minnesota ranks with the foremost states as regards the possibilities for increasing the production of her soil by tile drainage.

COAL INVESTIGATION

Faced with the strong probability of a serious fuel famine in Minnesota next winter, Gov. Preus has ordered an investigation into the coal supply, and practices and prices of coal prevailing in the wholesale and retail trade of the state. This is just what the people want and the governor is to be commended for his prompt action. The requirements of the different localities will be ascertained, and dealers will be urged to prepare for these requirements. Special inquiry will be made with reference to prices. N. J. Holmberg, commissioner of agriculture, will conduct the inquiry.

DAMAGES FOR FOREST FIRES

The state supreme court has announced a decision holding that the United States railroad administration is liable to damages resulting from the forest fire which started near the Great Northern tracks near Cloquet in October, 1918, and caused a loss of several million dollars. The case decided directly involves 278 plaintiffs and indirectly 1,200 residents of Cloquet who were burned out. In the total area of the fire there are about 2,000 claimants to damages and the aggregate amount involved is estimated at upward of $20,000,000.

This decision affirms that of the five district judges who tried the consolidated Cloquet fire case in May, 1920. Responsibility of the Federal Railroad administration is incurred through its operation of the Great Northern railroad at the time.

Representative Knutson of St. Cloud is home from Washington for a two weeks' visit in his district. He expects to return to the capital when the House takes up the tax revision legislation which will be reported at an early date by the ways and means committee.

Farm laborers are said to be scarce and in great demand in Minnesota, especially in the southern part of the state. The farmers are clamoring for help in the harvest fields at from $2.50 to $3.00 per day including room and board, while hundreds of men are walking the streets in the cities looking for work at 35 cents an hour. As the farmers proceed with their harvesting it is feared the situation will be worse.

The revenue from motor vehicle licenses under the Babcock law has passed the $4,500,000 mark, and about 600 applications, the majority of which are for new cars, are being received daily at the present time throughout the state. More than 300,000 motor vehicles have been licensed on the applications numbered.

It is estimated that 25,000 men are needed at once in North Dakota to harvest the wheat and other crops. Farmers in the state are said to be offering $3.00 a day for harvest work.

Perhaps it may cheer the ultimate consumer somewhat to remember that the coal men have to buy shoes—and vice versa.

There are a lot of inconsistent people in this wicked world—and there are also those who are very willing to get back to normalcy by having the wages of others cut.

But Only They.

Most women hate flattery—when they hear it applied to other women.—Boston Transcript.

A forger who found good picking in Grand Forks is on his way to Brainerd and the Merchants' Association of Grand Forks and East Grand Forks has advised A. L. Hoffman, secretary of the Brainerd Business Men's Association as follows:

"A prosperous looking middle-aged man passed forged checks on several of our stores during the past week. Bought goods at bicycle, furniture and trunk stores. A quiet business like talker. Explains why he is buying the particular article, telling of his boy in connection with a bicycle purchase, of his wife in connection with a trunk purchase, etc. Gave large sized checks and received change. Laid foundation by previous calls at stores a day or two before.

"Posed as a local man, a well rated railroad conductor. He is described as a man aged about 45, weighs about 175 pounds, rather long face smooth shaven, ruddy complexion, possibly a little gray, stomach a little prominent, is well dressed.

"May be the same man who worked Aberdeen, S. D. At that point operator forged checks on a railroad man and displayed good knowledge of railroading. Also claimed to be an Elk."

Brainerd House and Social Committee Meets Wednesday Evening at New Park Theatre

As Brainerd lodge of Elks intends to make a good showing at the state convention in St. Cloud, the house and social committee is doing preparatory work to getting the lodge represented in every possible way. Chairman Clyde E. Parker has called a meeting of the committee for Wednesday evening, tonight, at 7 o'clock at the New Park Theatre.

As showing the interest in the state convention, the following is quoted from the St. Cloud Daily Times:

From Fargo and Faribault, Crookston and Mankato, St. Paul, Minneapolis and Brainerd, Little Falls, Duluth and a dozen other Minnesota cities, the great brotherhood of Elks will assemble in St. Cloud on August 24, 25 and 26, when the state convention of the B. P. O. E. will be held. And many of the lodges have already written for reservations and announced record delegations, frequently adding that bands, orchestras or drum corps will accompany the representatives of the lodges.

Fargo states that Number 260 will be here 150 strong, with a band and everything, and Mankato's 35-piece band will be present with a large delegation from 225. The famous St. Paul drum corps, winner of the contest at the Los Angeles convention will assist in representing the capital city, and Number 770 of Little Falls will be another lodge to arrive on a special train and furnish musical entertainment. Faribault will be here with a goodly number of antlered brothers, and the Elks of Crookston plan on making a real motor tour on the occasion of the big gathering. Minneapolis, declaring that the lodge has had evidences of St. Cloud hospitality, will endeavor to have the largest delegation of all attending cities, and Brainerd will be here in strength with a band and perhaps an orchestra, traveling in a special train.

Reservation cards have been mailed to the lodges throughout the state and responses have been exhilarating to the state president, Don Freeman, and the hard-working entertainment committee.

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Everything for QUALITY —nothing for show

THAT'S OUR IDEA in making CAMELS—the Quality Cigarette.

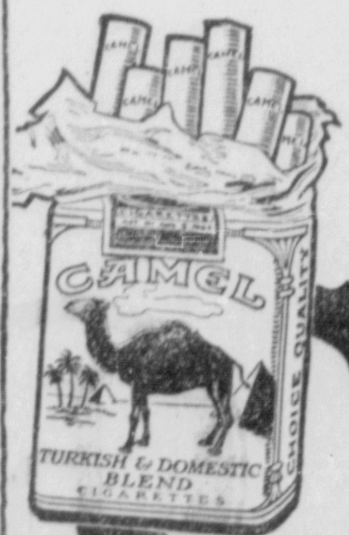

Why, just buy Camels and look at the package! It's the best packing science has devised to keep cigarettes fresh and full flavored for your taste. Heavy paper outside—secure foil wrapping inside and the revenue stamp over the end to seal the package and keep it air-tight.

And note this! There's nothing flashy about the Camel package. No extra wrappings that do not improve the smoke. Not a cent of needless expense that must come out of the quality of the tobacco.

Camels wonderful and exclusive Quality wins on merit alone.

Because, men smoke Camels who want the taste and fragrance of the finest tobaccos, expertly blended. Men smoke Camels for Camels smooth, refreshing mildness and their freedom from cigarette aftertaste.

Camels are made for men who think for themselves.

A HAIRCUT and shave.

SO HE gave the barber,
AN AMERICAN cigarette,
WHICH THE barber smoked,
AND MY friend pointed,
TO HIS mouth,
AND SAID "Likee voo."
AND THE barber roared,

Tyranny of Custom.

Stanley, the African explorer, said: "No luxury of civilization can be equal to the relief from the tyranny of custom. The heart of Africa is infinitely preferable to the heart of the world's largest city. If the way were easier, millions would fly to it."

At the Lyceum Theatre
Joseph J. Dowling, "the Miracle Man of the Screen" and one of the foremost character actors of today, heads the all-star cast of "The Kentucky Colonel," which will be shown at the New Lyceum theatre today and tomorrow.

Mr. Dowling, who has had a long and splendid screen career and whose
